The Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday evening says. Whiskey has advanced to 171c., with an active demand. The impression that the extraordinary wet weather has made it impossible to raise a good crop of corn the present season, influenees the price of corn, and consequently the Whiskey market. ANN ARBOR, November 5, 1856 .- Prof. O. Others of my family and friends are using your Restorative, with the happiest effects; therefore, my skepticism and doubts in reference to its character and value are entirely removed; and I can and do most cordially and confidently recommend its use by all who would have their hair restored from white or gray (by reason of sick ness or age.) to original color and beauty, and y all young persons who would have their hair
